PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear brothers and sisters, today we celebrate Father's Day, so congratulations to all fathers. I believe this feast should be honored more, especially when society has consistently weakened the figure of the father, thus compromising our relationship with our true Father, God. We will offer a novena for all the intentions you have presented to us this week.

You may have seen that we have begun remodeling the sacristy. This is a work that relies on volunteers and donations (especially material ones). We have almost completed the ceiling; one parishioner will donate his time resanding the wood; another will rebuild some cabinets and the central cabinet island. I am looking into laying a white marble floor and getting marble countertops. I already have someone to install them at no cost but, I might have to buy the material (I have found someone who will give us a very good discount on the marble). We are proceeding and hopefully you will like the renovated sacristy.

We are also in the process of vetting a company to redo the stairs at the church entrance. Two members of the Finance Council are working on it. As soon as I have more details, I will share those with you. My hope is to have new and much-needed stairs very soon. We will also redo the north side stairs and see if we can reactivate the system to heat them during the winter, as the north side tends to freeze more often and stay frozen.

Today's Gospel relates to us this passage: "Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." Two things are important to notice: 1) Christianity is fundamentally a relationship with a person, and as every relationship that is serious and important, it is not based on superficial common interests, but needs to go deeper and touch on what is profound in each one of us. That it is why Christ says nothing is concealed, but concealed from whom? From Christ himself, who wants to enter a relationship with each one of us. At first Christ enters into us, into our darkness and reveals to us - whispers, he says - what is hidden. Christ reveals to us his nature and relationship with the Father. 2) This exchange of knowledge cannot be self-contained but is self-diffusive, and that is why what Christ tells us in the darkness is witnessed to by every Christian. The place where this friendship and witnessing occurs is the Church. Let us ask the Lord to help us begin to strengthen or renew our relationship with Him in this time.

*have courage!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

While the teachers are looking for a way to share some useful catechetical material with children and parents; we thought that it would be proper to conclude this very peculiar school year with a nice celebration. The idea is to have a closing Eucharist with Fr Capucci & Fr Basso so as to entrust to the Lord the faith formation of our kids. We would like to invite the families of the kids to join their teachers in thanking the Lord for calling us to the Church. The celebration will take place in the Church on Saturday June 27th at 11:00am.

RE CHILDRENS MASS

A Special Mass for all the children in the Religious Education Program will be held next Saturday, June 27th at 11:00 am in the Church. Please come with your families as we bring this year to a close and pray for our children.

MASS SIGN-UP NOTICE

There is no longer a need to sign-up for the 12:00 noon or 5:30 pm Masses on Sundays. Also, we have increased the slots to 25 for the 5 pm Mass on Saturdays and 8 am Mass on Sundays.

A free online tool used to coordinate the delivery of meals to someone who is in need.

We have the opportunity to help by providing meals to our priests just twice a week. One of our kind parishioners has set up a way that we can sign up for this service, “take them a meal.”

When you sign up you are responsible for cooking ONE MEAL. (Dessert is always welcome too!) You will be cooking for 7 adults. If possible include bread and a salad.

The priests and seminarians are so grateful for your kind and generous care for them. By cooking for them you are making a direct impact in their well-being and strength. As always, thank you for all you do...
